

Wheeler Chamber of Commerce

Code of Conduct

Respect the privacy of everyone we deal with, by NOT disclosing or discussing any confidential, proprietary, personal, medical or financial information.

Members will:

Make a positive difference in the lives of others,

Respect the rights of others and their property,

Be courteous, honest and fair with others,

Communicate in an appropriate, purposeful and positive manner,

Be aware of Chamber programs and activities and be an advocate for the chamber,

Serve on at least one chamber committee,

Appreciate and promote diversity in our organization.

Ambassadors will also conduct their actions according to their school Code of Conduct.